WHY CEPEC IS ACTIVE

The economic, social and technological changes of the European countries, have reflexes on all trades, professional categories and business sectors, and also the profession of beauticians, must keep up the pace of transformation and change of demand from European citizens and customers.

This situation requires innovative responses from beauticians and a strong, significant and determined European representation that CEPEC has created and is committed to make it stronger .

CEPEC is active in consolidating the professional spaces for all beauticians wherever they are, and for this reason, it deals with all the areas of interest for the beauticians enterprises; the educational, the technological and the communication one and of the image of the profession by defending, with new ways and effective responses, the professional content that beauticians can exercise with their skills and abilities.

The person services sector, in its broader meaning constitutes approximately 1.3% of total employment in the EU; however, the overall economic weight remains limited and represents 0.8% of GDP EU average (European Commission 2016).

For this reason CEPEC is committed to making visible the professional and service's contribution of the category and to valorize, results in hand, the social value developed in terms of

CEPEC WORK

- CEPEC acts:
